FOALED: May 15, 2018

"Dolly" is a 3 year old bay mare. Broke well and seen a lot of different country. She's doctored calves in the pasture and drug calves to the fire. Dolly is very lightly started in the roping box and loping a nice barrel pattern. Kids can ride her around in a pen alone no problem. I have given riding lessons to beginners on her and she'd done great with no issues. She's super sound and sane to go on and do anything.

"Miss Dakota Sunrise is very "cowy" and fun to sort cattle on. She has sorted everything and is very quiet while sorting everything from pairs, heavies, baby calves, to yearlings. She is soft in the face and does not require spurs to move. She has loaded trucks and you can open any gate on her. She's drug calves to the fire and is extremely careful where she puts her feet when walking through wrestlers. She is a go to horse when gathering cattle on stocks and in canyons. She is extremely sure footed. Miss Dakota has roped everything from calves to 1400lb cows. She can be a little watchy on the ground but has never struck or kicked at anyone. She is not a kids horse.

CONSIGNED BY: Spencer Shifflet

FOALED: April 15, 2017

SEX: Mare AQHA: #5865315

"Penny" is a gorgeous 4 year old palomino with excellent foundation papers. Super gentle and is being used by my eight year old daughter, but has plenty of gas to ranch on or in the arena. She has drug calves, gathered, trail ridden, and has been started in the arena. 15 hands and still filling out. She will be a great all around horse. Take her home, ride her and then breed her and have some beautiful babies!
